

Feedback on evaluation form from the transnational meeting

11th-12th December 2018, Poland

2018-1-PL01-KA229-050642_1

5 participants were requested to respond anonymously to the issues concerning the meeting quality, its composition and ideas for further cooperation. They were given the following options : excellent, good, average, fair, poor.

As far as the range of covered aspects, length of the meeting and interactivity 5 respondents stated that these were dealt on an excellent level. All respondents stated that usefulness of information has been covered on an excellent level.

Every participant found the scheduling of the meeting appropriate and saw the opportunity to express and share ideas. All participants claimed that they had received satisfactory support and help from the organizers. One participant added that the meeting was much needed and well organized.